About Stokesley and Bedfordshire

Stokesley sits in the county of North Yorkshire and is settled around the River Leven. This small market town is a hub of activity with a selection shops and ample choice of pubs and restaurants to delight in, alongside a local leisure centre and golf club. Settled between the edge of the North York Moors and the lively, large town of Middlesbrough, you can find a wealth of things to do whether that's exploring the countryside with walks or bike rides to see the amazing scenery, or visiting the coast and discovering some beautiful beaches.
