About Golant and the area

Perched on the river Fowey, Golant is a Cornish waterside village offering a Fishermans arms Pub, and a retail art gallery. This charming village, due to the stretch of the River Fowey Golant sits on, has inspired many writers including the author of The Wind in the Willows. 3 miles away is the yachting village of Fowey which is bursting with character. Walk down the cobbled streets accompanied by Georgian historic buildings. with plenty to offer for everyone all year round. There are many family attractions in the area, including Mevagissey and Charlestown harbours, the Eden Project and the Lost Gardens of Heligan.
